INTERFAITH LEADERSHIP

Today where cross-cultural and cross-religious contacts are nearly ubiquitous, professionals in various sectors (e.g., health-care, law, business, education, NGOs, government service and public policy) are beginning to recognize the need to address the religious/spiritual dimensions of their work not only to serve more compassionately and effectively, but also to contribute to the evolution of a more inclusive and just society. The Interfaith Leadership Minor program provides students with a set of competencies and perspectives to begin to understand what is at stake in our religiously diverse world and how to make a difference in it in their own lives and in whatever careers they pursue. Those who develop the capacities of interfaith leadership understand that religion can be a source of conflict or an invitation to cooperation, and they know how to lead others toward the latter. Hence, an “Interfaith Leader” is a person with the knowledge, capacity for self-reflection and empathy, values and skills to lead inclusively and effectively in any religiously and spiritually diverse environment.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students who complete the program will be able to:

- IDENTITY/BIAS: Reflect on students’ own and others’ identity formation and perspectives; articulate how religious and other identities and worldviews affect perceptions of issues that arise in various environments and situations; and articulate how such perceptions can result in bias.
- COMMUNICATION/DIALOGUE: Demonstrate effective communication and dialogue facilitation skills that can be used to address interreligious conflict and promote interfaith cooperation, engagement, and understanding.
- RELIGIOUS LITERACY: Demonstrate an understanding of what it means to be religiously literate; articulate ways that religions differ in thought, practice, and organization; and articulate the meaning of “pluralism” in this context.
- LEADERSHIP: Identify interfaith challenges and opportunities; propose inclusive methods for addressing them; and articulate how to lead implementation of those inclusive methods.
- APPLICATION: Demonstrate interfaith leadership (as defined above) in a collaborative community-based project.

PROGRAM NOTES:

Note on “Double-Dipping”: Students may count up to two courses from their major and one course from another minor toward the Interfaith Leadership Minor. (Exception: the Anthropology Department currently does not allow its majors and minors to double-dip with other programs.)

Note on courses not listed above: Other courses may be allowed as electives on the approval of the Interfaith Leadership Minor director.

Note on Prerequisites for Courses from Other Departments/Programs: Some courses in the Interfaith Leadership Minor may require permission of the instructor, if students do not have the prerequisites for the course. For example, JCL 150 will require permission of the instructor, and entry in that course will depend on how far along students are in this minor. Also, only students who have taken Psych 001 and Ethnic Studies 001, may enroll in Psych 163 Prejudice and Stereotyping. Students should prepare accordingly.

Note for Interfaith in Context Elective:

 Psychology 150 only counts as an elective for this minor when it is taught by Caitlin Powell.

Notes for Enhanced Learning Outcome Elective:

- * The asterisked courses will count for this elective only if they were not already taken as a part of the Interfaith Leadership Minor Program Core.
- † Theology and Religious Studies (TRS) courses for the Interfaith Leadership Minor will not double-dip with the Theological Understanding Core Curriculum(TUCC) General Education Requirement. To count as an Enhanced Learning Outcome Elective, these courses must be taken in addition to the two courses required for the TUCC requirement. Note also that other TRS courses may count for this elective upon approval of the Interfaith Leadership Program Director, who will confirm their inclusion in this program with the TRS Department Chair.

C O U R S E S

IFL 120 Interfaith Leadership Praxis

A field-based course required for students who plan to complete the Interfaith Leadership Minor. Through the integration of the Interfaith Leadership Minor learning outcomes, students receive hands-on experience in developing and conducting a project that involves building bridges of understanding and cooperation across boundaries of religious, spiritual, and/ or non-faith differences. The course instructor and the enrolled student(s) work together in the development of the project, the implementation of which will be the student(s)' primary responsibility. Depending on the number of eligible students, this course may be conducted as an independent study or involve students working together in teams. Prerequisites: All four Program Core full credit courses. Offered annually spring semester.

OTHER COURSES IN THE PROGRAM

Course descriptions for other courses in the Interfaith Leadership Minor can be found under their respective department/program in this catalog, e.g., in Business Administration, Anthropology, Ethnic Studies, Psychology, Communication, Politics, History, Kinesiology, Global and Regional Studies, Theology and Religious Studies, and Justice, Community and Leadership.
