THE ADMINISTRATIVE ORGANIZATION

- 1.4 A primary purpose of the administrative organization of the College is to guarantee that the planning, execution and evaluation of all of the activities of the College take place in an orderly, efficient and beneficial manner. The administrative organization is revised from time to time to further these ends.

Section 1.4 contains general descriptions of certain positions within the College. These descriptions do not supplement or otherwise modify the official position description pertaining the described position, as maintained by the Human Resources Office.

THE PRESIDENT

The President is appointed by the Provincial of the San Francisco New Orleans District of the Brothers of the Christian Schools for a four-year term, renewable, and is responsible to the Board of Trustees. He is the chief executive and administrative officer of the College, and is vested with full and final authority in all matters pertaining to its government, educational programs, auxiliary services, and financial operations, within the limitations imposed by the approved policies of the Trustees, and the Charter and Bylaws of the College. He appoints the principal administrative officers of the College, and approves the appointment and retention of other administrative officers. He authorizes all faculty appointments, issues all contracts, and confers all promotions and tenure, informed by the recommendation of the Provost, who is advised by the appropriate academic officers and the Rank and Tenure Committee. He also approves all policies affecting non-academic personnel of the College. He is an ex-officio member of all College committees.

The administrative staff of the President consists of the Provost, the Vice Presidents (College Communications, Advancement, Finance, and Mission), the Director of Athletics and Recreational Sports, the Executive Assistant to the President, and the General Counsel.

General Counsel

The General Counsel is appointed by the President. The General Counsel advises the President and the Board of Trustees and is the primary legal advisor to the College. In addition to the overall management of litigation that affects the College, the General Counsel, upon request, by the Board, President, Provost, Vice President for Finance and Administration or other officers, will review and/or draft College agreements and will advise and otherwise assist with questions regarding laws and regulations affecting the College.

1.4.1.2

Director of Athletics and Recreational Sports

The Director of Athletics and Recreational Sports reports to the President and administers the intercollegiate and recreational sport programs and the facilities of the College dedicated to these activities. The Director recommends to the Provost the appointment of all coaches and support staff and is responsible for: the Athletic Department's budget;

NCAA, WCC, and other relevant athletic compliance and regulatory matters; grant-in-aid administration for athletes; athletic marketing and promotions, media relations, and fund raising. The Director provides coordination and leadership for the Campus Athletic And Recreational Sport Committee (see 1.7.3.10). The Senior Woman Administrator works closely with the Director on all matters and provides coordination and leadership for the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. The Director, under the leadership and direction of the Provost, is responsible for working collaboratively with multiple, other organizational units on campus including but not limited to Admissions, Financial Aid, Human Resources, Business Office, Registrar, Advancement, College Communications, Staff Council, Academic Senate, Regents, and Trustees.

1.4.2 Provost

The Provost is appointed by the President as chief academic officer of the College for a term mutually agreed upon and is responsible to the President. As the administrative officer responsible for all academic affairs of the College (policies, personnel, programs, budgets), the Provost is vested with authority commensurate with such responsibility. The Provost recommends to the President the appointment, promotion, and retention of Vice Provosts, Deans, administrative staff, and all full-time faculty. The Provost is a member of the President's Cabinet, chairperson of the Provost's Council, the Provost's Council of Deans, and an ex-officio member of all committees in the area of academic affairs.

The administrative staff of the Provost to whom responsibility and commensurate authority are delegated are the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Academics, the Vice Provost for Graduate and Professional Studies, the Vice Provost for Enrollment, the Vice Provost for Student Life, Deans of the Schools, Dean for Library and Academic Resources, the Chief Technology Officer, the Director of Faculty Development, the Director of Institutional Research, and the Director of Business Operations.

1.4.2.1 Vice Provost for Academics

The Vice Provost for Academics, reporting to the Provost, provides strategic and operational support for the Colleges academic programs, which includes: supervision of international programs and services, community engagement, and professional and career development; collaboration with the Vice Provosts for Student Affairs and Enrollment Services on initiatives for recruitment, retention, admission, curricular and co-curricular programming; strategic and operational support for policies and procedures related to graduate, professional, hybrid and online education; assistance to the Provost in developing industry and community relations through partnerships, research, and programming; facilitation of the development of grant requests, academic centers and institutes; service as the WASC Accreditation Liaison Officer and working with the Provost in overseeing academic planning and assessment, academic policies and programs, accreditation, Program Review and subsequent program action plans; oversight of the Center for Teaching, Learning and Scholarship and assistance with department chair and program director development and support for new faculty; supervision and coordination of course assignment and scheduling, procedures and records for and faculty relative to grievances and appeals, summer session, and commencement; support for faculty workforce planning and budgeting; and collaboration with other Vice Provosts, Deans, and the Academic Senate in designing and implementing student policies, such as the Academic Honor Code and the Student Code of Conduct.

1.4.2.1.3 Vice Provost for Enrollment

The Vice Provost for Enrollment is appointed by the Provost in consultation with the President and is responsible for the offices and procedures that serve students in the recruitment, admissions and enrollment processes of the College. Working collaboratively with colleagues in academic and student affairs, the Vice Provost spearheads and coordinates institution-wide retention efforts. To better understand the needs of students and to assist the College in its assessment and planning efforts, Enrollment Services gathers and reports on institutional data. The offices and functions included within Enrollment Services are admissions, financial aid, the registrar, articulation and transfer, international recruitment and admissions.

1.4.2.1.3.1 Registrar

The Registrar is responsible for the following registrarial functions: academic records (transcripts, grades, grading policies); enrollment (registration requirements and procedures, leave of absence, withdrawal from School, verification of enrollment, qualifications for readmission); progress toward degree (academic probation, special academic petitions, declarations of major and minor); determination of degree requirements (candidacy, granting of degrees, course credit evaluations); class schedule, room assignments; and final examination schedule. Along with others, the Registrar contributes to institutional research efforts, and is primarily responsible for the enforcement of academic regulations. The Registrar is assisted by the staff of the Office of the Registrar.

1.4.2.1.3.2 Dean of Admissions

The Dean of Admissions is responsible for the recruitment and admission evaluation of all incoming traditional undergraduate students. Responsibilities include demographic research, development of publications and video, School and college visits, interviewing of applicants, and supervision of alumni, faculty and student recruitment programs, consideration of applicants' credentials and determination and notification of admission status. The Director supervises the Admissions office staff of counselors and support personnel.

1.4.2.1.3.3 Director of Financial Aid

The Director of Financial Aid supervises and administers all aspects of the financial aid program. The Director counsels students and parents on the availability of financial aid and scholarships, determines eligibility for the college's financial aid programs, prepares applications for federal funds, directs the awarding of financial aid and the maintenance of records, and prepares reports required by federal, state, and institutional agencies.

1.4.2.1.4 Chief Technology Officer

The Chief Technology Officer (CTO) is responsible for both academic and administrative technology, including the planning, implementation and management of electronic resources and management of information systems. The Chief Technology Officer also oversees campus telecommunications and audio-visual support.

1.4.2.2 Deans, Academic Affairs

1.4.2.2.1 Dean of the School

The Dean of the School is its chief academic officer and is vested with the commensurate authority and responsibility for all aspects of the academic enterprise of the School (policy, planning, personnel, programs, budgets). The Dean reports to the Provost and recommends the appointment, promotion and retention of his/her administrative staff and of full-time faculty; appoints all part-time faculty; consults with the Provost on all matters relating to substantive revision of the academic policies and programs of the School and the appointment of chairpersons; collaborates with other Deans and with the Vice Provost for Academics in matters of mutual concern and especially with those involving overlapping policies, programs and faculty. There is a Dean for each of the four schools: Economics and Business Administration, Education, Liberal Arts, and Science.

1.4.2.2.2 Dean of the Core

The Dean of the Core is vested with the commensurate authority and responsibility for all aspects of the academic enterprise of the core undergraduate programs at the College: Collegiate Seminar, January ("Jan") Term, the Core Curriculum, and the First Year Advising Cohort (FYAC). The Dean reports to the Provost and recommends the appointment, promotion, and retention of his/her administrative staff and contingent faculty; consults with the Provost on all matters relating to the substantive revision of the academic policies and programs of the Core and the appointment of Directors, collaborates with other Deans and the Vice Provost for Academics in matters of mutual concern and especially with those involving overlapping policies, programs and faculty.

1.4.2.2.3 Dean for Library and Academic Resources

The Dean for Academic Resources and Library Director provides leadership for the staffs of the SMC Library and the Hearst Art Gallery. The Dean is responsible for the development, accomplishment, assessment, and quality of the Gallery and Library programs. The position provides administrative supervision over the two areas and serves as liaison between campus academic and administrative offices and the Gallery and Library.

1.4.2.2.4 Associate Vice Provost for Student Success

The Associate Vice Provost for Student Success is responsible, in collaboration with the appropriate Deans of the Schools and the Dean for Student Life, for development, implementation, and evaluation of the program of academic advising and related services for undergraduate students; for supervision and coordination of the minority students programs, the Academic Support and Achievement programs, and the High Potential program. The Associate Vice Provost is assisted by the coordinators and directors of the above-named programs.

1.4.2.3 Director, Academic Affairs

If a director has the basic responsibilities of a department chairperson, the description of responsibilities and authority given under 1.4.2.4.1 applies to the director. If the director does not have such basic responsibilities, then reference must be made to a job description.

1.4.2.3.1 Director of Faculty Development

The Director of Faculty Development is responsible for designing and implementing programs to enhance faculty scholarship and teaching. The Director reports to the Provost and chairs the Committee on Teaching and Scholarship (1.7.4.10), and the Faculty Development Fund Committee (1.7.3.9).

1.4.2.3.2 Director of the Collegiate Seminar Program

The Director of the Collegiate Seminar Program is appointed by the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Academics in consultation with the Collegiate Seminar Governing Board (1.7.4.12) of the Collegiate Seminar. The Director is responsible in collaboration with the Governing Board - of which the Director is chairperson - for the organization and development of the program and the appointment, evaluation and development of faculty in the program. (This entails the basic responsibilities of a department chair as specified in 1.4.2.4.1). In collaboration with the Deans of the Schools (from which the faculty is drawn), the Director is responsible for providing for the staffing needs of the program.

1.4.2.3.3 Director of January Term

The Director of the January Term is appointed by the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Academics. The Director is responsible, in collaboration with the January Term Committee (1.7.4.11), of which the Director is chairperson, for the organization, development and evaluation of the January Term program, for the provision and appropriate staffing of needed courses in the context of the January Term, for approving courses proposed by faculty for the January Term in consultation with the January Term Committee, for the evaluation of faculty teaching in the January Term program and for exercise of appropriate jurisdiction over all faculty teaching in the program.

1.4.2.3.4 Director of Catholic Institute for Lasallian Social Action

The Director of the Catholic Institute for Social Action (CILSA) provides leadership to the campus community in developing, promoting, and coordinating opportunities and resources to enhance student engagement in volunteer community service, social justice activities, and reflection experiences. The Director is responsible for developing a staff of professionals, students and faculty and for establishing an Advisory Board for this campus program. CILSA serves the campus community primarily as an action-oriented, information and referral center promoting a culture of service across the College.

1.4.2.3.5 Director of Center for International Programs

The Director of the Center for International Programs is responsible for the oversight of the Center for International Programs. This center provides study abroad opportunities to Saint Mary's students and supervises the Intensive English Program. In addition, the center furnishes orientation, counseling and assistance to matriculated international students in both undergraduate and graduate programs. The Director is advised by the International Programs Coordinating Committee (1.7.3.7) and reports to the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Academics.

1.4.2.4 Department Chairs

Department Chairs are appointed by the Dean of the School for a three-year term, after consultation with at least the senior members (i.e., full professors and tenured members) of the department. Chairs may be reappointed by the Dean after confidential evaluations have been solicited from all members of the department and consultation has taken place with all senior department members and others whose opinions the Dean deems may be helpful.

A Chair is a ranked faculty member, typically with tenure, chosen to provide collaborative leadership to academic departments by integrating their unit across the College, taking responsibility to ensure the integrity and quality of the SMC educational experience, and promoting productive and professional working relationships. The duties listed below reflect general areas shared by all department chairs. These duties are sometimes delegated to others, as appropriate.

Duties of a Chair

1. Departmental Organization

- a. Organize instruction (course assignment, course scheduling) and develop instruction (new courses, teaching effectiveness) within the department for the academic year;
- b. Hold regular, minuted departmental meetings;
- c. Ensure timely completion of the Program Review and Assessment process and accreditation documents, as applicable;
- d. Submit department budget proposals and exercise control over expenditures in the approved budget;
- e. Hear, ascertain the validity of, and respond to concerns and complaints that may be received from members of the department or from students who are taking courses in the department;
- f. Oversee the student recruitment and admissions process, as appropriate;
- g. Ensure that students in the department are being appropriately advised.

2. Faculty Management

- a. Manage the process of hiring new ranked faculty;
- b. Recruit, and review the performance of, contingent faculty, based on criteria in the CBA
- c. Manage a process of regular class visitation of departmental members: submit written evaluations of class visits to evaluated faculty and to their departmental files, and consult with faculty over their evaluations;
- d. Review and discuss the implications of student and peer evaluations with all department faculty.

3. Rank and Tenure Review

It is the responsibility of the chair to:

- a. Familiarize himself/herself with and follow the procedures of the Rank and Tenure Committee as these pertain to the chair;
- b. Maintain a current file for each member of the department with relevant material of candidates for rank and tenure review; keep informed on candidates subject to interim review, those eligible for tenure, and those eligible for promotion; collect appropriate materials to be presented to ranked members of the department to assist them in their evaluation of the candidates;
- c. Be responsible for the timely placement of the departmental forms in the candidate's rank and tenure file and of the formal letter from the chairperson for candidates subject to interim review, and of any appropriate letters of recommendations on candidates (see Rank and Tenure Procedures, section 2.6.2.2);
- d. Visit the classrooms of faculty moving toward tenure and being considered for promotion at least once per term. For faculty moving toward tenure, a second classroom visit by a ranked faculty member (who may or may not be the chair) is expected each term.

e. Review student evaluations of the candidates, especially the opinions of departmental majors;

f. Coordinate a formal review of faculty up for interim, tenure, and promotion reviews. Work with the department or program to evaluate the faculty member's rank and tenure progress. Write Form B on behalf of the department or program. Represent any minority opinions in the department or program. Submit Form B directly to the Rank and Tenure Committee; share and discuss the written recommendations with the candidate prior to submitting them to the Rank and Tenure Committee;

4. Authority (beyond the items listed above)

a. To recommend to the Dean, as appropriate, the reappointment or non-appointment of departmental faculty;

b. To call departmental meetings and to establish departmental committees;

c. To initiate procedures deemed necessary for the good of the department (e.g., for the dismissal of an instructor);

d. To exercise the power of veto over departmental decisions;

e. Limitations of Authority: Chairs are bound by all college policies pertinent to their departments.
