Beatification of Brother James (Santiago) Miller
Brother James Miller, FSC, was beatified Saturday morning, Dec. 7, at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception in Huehuetenango, Guatemala. On Feb. 13, 1982, at the age of 37, Brother James was assassinated because of his efforts on behalf of indigenous students in Huehuetenango. Brother Bernie LoCoco, who knew Brother James, comments on the significance of his beatification as the first De La Salle Christian Brother from the United States. Read More
