Defining the Future: The Campaign for Saint Mary's Raises More Than $136 Million

Defining the Future: The Campaign for Saint Mary's marched to a successful conclusion on December 31, 2019. More than $136.6 million was secured from thousands of alumni, parents, friends, students, faculty, and staff, surpassing the Campaign’s $125 million goal by more than $10 million. The Campaign had a tremendous impact in four key areas, including raising $28M for scholarships for students. In a message on the Campaign’s webpage, Saint Mary’s President James Donahue said: "This achievement represents a historic accomplishment for the College, and I could not be more proud." Read More

Prof. Helga Lenart-Cheng Uses Fulbright Award to Study European Refugee Crisis

In January of 2018, Associate Professor of World Languages and Cultures Helga Lenart-Cheng learned she had been awarded a prestigious Fulbright U.S. Scholar Award. The award allowed her to spend six months at the University of Bordeaux Emile Durkheim Center of Research, studying the European refugee crisis and how the testimonies of refugees and migrants are currently being recorded in France, in particular at museums focusing on the experience of migration. View: MMC Vigil for Victims in Moraga Shooting
At the end of Saint Mary’s regularly scheduled 8 p.m. student-led Mass on Sunday, Jan. 26, scores of community members gathered in front of the Chapel for a candlelight vigil. The service recognized all victims of relationship violence, and the Mission and Ministry Center team led the gathering in "A Prayer in the Face of Violence," offering blessings in particular for all those from our community impacted by last weekend's shooting in Rheem Center. Director of the Center for Women and Gender Equity Sharon Sobotta took a moment after the vigil to encourage all in the SMC community to be supportive of anyone they know who is experiencing relationship violence.
