Jan Term Class Explores Capoeira, a Brazilian Dance and Form of Resistance

Last month, Assoc. Prof. Samantha Joyce gathered her Jan Term class of 22 students into a circle to teach them about Capoeira ("kaa·puh·weh·ruh"), the Brazilian martial art/dance introduced by enslaved Africans brought to Brazil during the 16th century. As we enter Black History Month, the class’ teachings couldn’t be more relevant. [Read More]
