2.11 FACULTY WORKLOAD

2.11.1 WORKLOAD FOR RANKED FACULTY

In accepting a letter of intent or contract, each ranked faculty member agrees to the following rules regarding workload:

1. To devote their full-time and best efforts during the periods of their appointments to performing the specified duties in their letters of appointment and to carrying out other duties assigned to them in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Faculty Handbook.
2. Not to accept or engage in any other employment or activity, whether paid or unpaid, which in the judgment of the President in consultation with the Dean of the faculty member's School might interfere with the performance of such duties, without the prior written authorization of the President. All such authorizations are required for each term of appointment in which they are sought, and will be granted on an annual basis only. A copy of any such authorization must be forwarded to the Office of Academic Affairs. Faculty may engage in teaching, consulting or other paid activities outside the College without the prior written authorization of the President as long as such activities do not exceed the equivalent of one eight (8) hour day each week while teaching.
3. The full-time teaching load for ranked faculty is set by the Board of Trustees. The faculty teaching load was last set by the Board in May 1990 at "21-22 units annually."

Normally, this translates into six full courses in the traditional undergraduate curriculum.

4. Ranked faculty are obligated to accept teaching assignments for which they are qualified, as assigned by the College.
5. Ranked faculty will post and hold a reasonable number of office hours to accommodate the schedules of students and advisees. These hours should be increased at peak times when advisees and other students are required to meet with faculty, e.g., preregistration, registration, drop/add, etc. Faculty teaching courses for which office hours are impractical must make themselves available for consultation with students to a reasonable extent through other appropriate means.
6. Ranked faculty are expected to attend departmental and committee meetings, general Academic Senate meetings, Commencement, and other special convocations.
7. Ranked faculty are also expected to assume various other duties related to their role as faculty. Such duties may include student advising, supervision of independent studies, service on School and College committees, instruction substitution for faculty colleagues, participation in student recruiting events, etc. If a faculty member, chair, or Dean perceives that the number of such duties in the aggregate is unreasonable, they should discuss this matter with the appropriate party to determine if an adjustment in the person's workload is warranted. In the case of instruction substitutions in excess of one week, following review and approval of the appropriate Dean and the Provost, substituting faculty will be compensated at a rate to be determined in prior consultation with the Human Resources office.

2.11.2 WORKLOAD FOR NON TENURE-TRACK FACULTY
Section eliminated. Topic covered by the CBA.

2.11.3 ACADEMIC ADVISING

Saint Mary's College recognizes that guidance and education are inseparable, and considers academic advising to be an extension of the teaching responsibilities of its faculty. Accordingly, all full-time faculty members are assigned a group of advisees. Faculty advisors are supported by the Office of Academic Advising and Achievement. Advisors are expected to make themselves available to these advisees on a regular basis and should familiarize themselves with the academic requirements of the College and its departments to assist students in formulating short- and long-term goals. All faculty are responsible for making themselves available to offer advice to students in their classes. As a faculty advisor, a faculty member is responsible for academic program planning, referral of advisees to other sources of assistance when appropriate, and making contact with students in academic difficulty when receiving notification from the Office of Academic Advising and Achievement. The promotion and tenure process takes student advising into consideration.

2.11.4 OFFICE HOURS

All faculty are required to hold regular office hours. Office hours should be posted and regular, and sufficient for the number of advisees assigned. These hours should be increased at peak times when advisees and other students are required to meet with faculty, e.g., preregistration, registration, drop/add, etc. Faculty teaching courses for which office hours are impractical must make themselves available for consultation with students to a reasonable extent through other appropriate means.
